Mr. Riddle's Dream of the Valley ame true all right in the feature race of the afternoon, the Newtown Selling takes, with $2,000 added, at six furlongs. This victory followed closely on the heels of Oceanic's success and gave Louis Feussel a chance to go home early and dry out after saddling two winners. Like Oceanic, Dream of the Valley ruined a Rancocas Stable favorite. This one happened to be Lord Prighton, which finished strong after running whe all around the turn. It was simply a gallop for Dream of the Valley. Teddy Rice quickly raced out into a commanding lead and finished under triple wraps. Perhaps the biggest surprise of the race was R. T. Alson's Manna, a 25 to 1 shot, that firmlahed the contention from start to faish, raced like a real thoroughbred at all times are the race was the contention from start to faish, raced like a real thoroughbred at all times are the race was a content of the contention from start to faish, raced like a real thoroughbred at all times are to the contention from start to faith. iniah, raced like a real thoroughbree at all times and finished out stoutly

Dempsey Expects To Be Sailing for Home on May 13

If the Tariff goes thrutailors and clothiers will have two alternatives. One-to raise prices. The other—to lower quality.

It will be a serious day for clothesmakers, and precarious for clothes-buyers. As for us—For 45 years we have never sold a piece of shoddy or cotton-filled goods-and we never will.

For 45 years we have never skimped a measurement, a lining, or a trimming-and we never will.

For 45 years we have held that fine all-wool fabrics, cut with art and sewed with care—are the only true economy, and they always will be.

We pledge that, as long as our present stock of woolens holds out, the prices will be
